produced records which reflected that MILTON FRIEDMAN entered that University on September 30, 1932, and attended the autumn quarter of 1932, the winter and spring quarter of 1933, the autumn quarter of 1934, and the winter quarter of 1935. The record indicated that FRIEDMAN received an A.M. Degree on December 19, 1933, majoring in Economics. The title of MILTON'S graduate thesis was, "An Emperical Study of the Relationship Between Railroad Stock Prices and Railroad Earnings for the Period 1921 to 1931". The record further indicated that prior to entering the University of Chicago, FRIEDMAN attended Rutgers University, where he received an A.B. Degree in 1932; that he was born July 31, 1912, Brooklyn, New York; and that his home address was 104 Main Street, Rahway, New Jersey.

Miss DOROTHY DENTON, Office Manager, Dean of Students Office, University of Chicago, made available student directories for the years 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, and 1935. An examination of these directories failed to list a residence for MILTON FRIEDMAN.

Mrs. SALLY CREYTS, Admissions Office, University of Chicago, advised that there was no admission record for MILTON FRIEDMAN, inasmuch as the admission records prior to 1935 had been destroyed.

Employment

Miss IRENE SMITH, Comptroller's Office, University of Chicago, produced payroll records which reflected that MILTON FRIEDMAN was employed October 31, 1946, as an Associate Professor of Economics, and as of October 1, 1948, MILTON served as a Professor of Economics, and is presently employed in that capacity. The payroll record indicated that FRIEDMAN was born July 31, 1912, at Brooklyn, New York, and that he is presently residing at 5701 Kenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and did formerly reside at 5725 Kenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Concerning FRIEDMAN'S employment as a Research Assistant from 1934 to 1935, Miss SMITH advised there was no record of such employment in the Comptroller's Office, University of Chicago. However, she pointed out that in many cases Research Assistants are employed by the particular departments and that the Research Assistants are paid from a cash fund allocated to the various departments for the specific purpose of paying Research Assistants and other extra work that is to be performed throughout the school or in the particular departments. It was Miss SMITH'S opinion that FRIEDMAN was probably paid from a cash fund in the Economics Department, and if that was the case there would be no record in the Comptroller's Office concerning such employment.

RICHARD B. GOODE, Assistant Professor of Economics, University of Chicago, advised that he had known MILTON FRIEDMAN for the past seven or eight years. He stated that he became acquainted with FRIEDMAN while FRIEDMAN was employed in the Treasury Department, Washington, D.C., and that in the past three years he has been closely associated with FRIEDMAN on the faculty of the University of Chicago. Mr. GOODE stated that he has known FRIEDMAN both socially and professionally, and during his association he has found FRIEDMAN to be a person of excellent character, reputable associates, and loyal to the United States.

Mr. GALE D. JOHNSON, Associate Professor of Economics, advised that he has known MILTON FRIEDMAN since 1946, when FRIEDMAN joined the faculty of the University of Chicago. Mr. JOHNSON advised that he has known FRIEDMAN both socially and professionally, and on numerous occasions has engaged FRIEDMAN in economic, political, and sociological discussions. Mr. JOHNSON described FRIEDMAN as being a "conservative", and explained the term "conservative" as meaning that FRIEDMAN was to the right of the "fair deal". In addition, Mr. JOHNSON commented that FRIEDMAN was a person of excellent character, associated with very reputable people, and that there was no doubt concerning FRIEDMAN'S loyalty to the United States. Mr. JOHNSON stated that he believed FRIEDMAN would be an excellent public servant and there would be no question concerning FRIEDMAN'S ability, since FRIEDMAN is considered a very able economist.

References:

LOYD W. MINTS, Associate Professor of Economics, University of Chicago, described MILTON FRIEDMAN as being a completely reliable person and an individual who strongly advocates "the competitive system". Continuing, Mr. MINTS related that he had met FRIEDMAN as a graduate student in 1932, and that he had known FRIEDMAN both as a student and as a colleague. Upon FRIEDMAN'S completion of his studies at the University of Chicago, MINTS related that FRIEDMAN studied at Columbia University where he received his Ph.D Degree, and that since that time FRIEDMAN had held numerous jobs of responsibility, both in and out of government. MINTS stated that in 1946 FRIEDMAN joined the staff of the Economics Department at the University of Chicago and has been with the University of Chicago since that time. MINTS related that he is acquainted with FRIEDMAN'S wife, who was formerly a graduate student in the Economics Department of the University of Chicago and was in attendance at the same time FRIEDMAN was at the University of Chicago as a student. Mr. MINTS stated that at the present time he rooms with a distant relative of FRIEDMAN'S wife, and through this connection has been very close to the FRIEDMANS socially as well as professionally. He stated that he would recommend FRIEDMAN and his wife without qualification as being persons of good character, reputable associates, and loyal to the United States.

Chicago file 124-1091

In addition, Mr. MINTS pointed out that he believes the United States Government is very fortunate in securing the services of FRIEDMAN, not only because he is well qualified, but because he has a keen sense of duty and obligation toward the United States Government.

Concerning FRIEDMAN'S employment as a graduate assistant during FRIEDMAN'S student days at the University of Chicago, MINTS recalled that FRIEDMAN was employed as a graduate Research Assistant and that he worked under the direction of Professor HENRY SCHULTZ, now deceased. Mr. MINTS stated that he did not recall the nature of FRIEDMAN'S duties other than the fact that he was a Research Assistant.

Mr. H. GREGG LEWIS, Associate Professor of Economics, University of Chicago, advised that he first became acquainted with MILTON FRIEDMAN in 1946 when FRIEDMAN joined the staff of the University of Chicago. He stated that prior to that time he had known FRIEDMAN only by FRIEDMAN'S reputation as an economist. Mr. LEWIS pointed out that FRIEDMAN'S reputation as an economist is very high and that he is considered very able in that particular field. He stated that during his association with FRIEDMAN on the staff of the University of Chicago he has discussed on numerous occasions, "off the cuff", various subject pertaining to politics and economics. During these discussions Mr. LEWIS stated that there had never been the slightest indication that FRIEDMAN was disloyal to the United States or that he had any interest in any government other than the United States. He stated that he had complete confidence that FRIEDMAN was loyal to the United States and that FRIEDMAN would serve the United States to the best of his ability. Mr. LEWIS stated that he is well acquainted with the other members of FRIEDMAN'S family, and they, like FRIEDMAN, are persons of excellent character, reputable associates, and loyal to the United States.

THEODORE W. SCHULTZ, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Economics, University of Chicago, said that he had known MILTON FRIEDMAN for the past ten years. He stated that he first became acquainted with FRIEDMAN while FRIEDMAN was teaching at the University of Wisconsin, and was also associated with FRIEDMAN at the University of Minnesota. He stated that he has been very closely associated with FRIEDMAN since FRIEDMAN has been at the University of Chicago, and would recommend FRIEDMAN without qualification as being a person of good character, reputable associates, and loyal to the United States.

She stated that FRIEDMAN has two children and that he is employed as a professor at the University of Chicago. She further related that FRIEDMAN and his wife are very good neighbors, and to her knowledge have never been in any trouble of any kind. Miss JAMES stated that she has only known the FRIEDMANS as a neighbor and has only visited them on a very few social occasions. However, she stated that as far as she knows, the FRIEDMANS are persons of good character, reputable associates, and loyal to the United States.

Mr. B. P. RUCKER, 5701 Kenwood, advised that MILTON FRIEDMAN and his family resided in an apartment at 5701 Kenwood, and he described them as being quite studious and neighborly people. He stated that at the present time FRIEDMAN is in Europe on a confidential mission for the United States, and that FRIEDMAN is employed by the University of Chicago as a professor. Mr. RUCKER pointed out that his association with FRIEDMAN has been very limited, but that he has never noticed anything unfavorable concerning FRIEDMAN'S character, associates, or loyalty to the United States.

Mr. ORAN R. ARTMAN, 5701 Kenwood, advised that MILTON FRIEDMAN had lived in the building at 5701 Kenwood Avenue for approximately two years. He stated that his association with FRIEDMAN or Mrs. FRIEDMAN has been limited to merely speaking in the hall. Mr. ARTMAN did state, however, that he has never heard any unfavorable comment concerning FRIEDMAN or his family, and that he has never observed or heard anything which would reflect unfavorably on the FRIEDMAN family's character, associations, or loyalty to the United States.

Mrs. MARCIA FRIEDMAN, 5725 Kenwood, who is no relation to MILTON FRIEDMAN or his wife, advised that they purchased the property at 5725 Kenwood from MILTON FRIEDMAN about two years ago. She stated that she knows nothing about FRIEDMAN, but did point out that FRIEDMAN was very just in his dealings concerning the selling of the property at 5725 Kenwood. She stated that FRIEDMAN moved from 5725 Kenwood to 5701 Kenwood, and that any comment she has heard concerning FRIEDMAN has been extremely favorable.

Miss AUDREY FLANDREAU, 5723 Kenwood, advised that she was not personally acquainted with MILTON FRIEDMAN during the time that he resided at 5725 Kenwood, nor is she presently acquainted with FRIEDMAN since he has lived at 5701 Kenwood Avenue. She did state, however, that she was aware of the fact that FRIEDMAN was a professor at the University of Chicago and that he apparently enjoyed a good reputation while living at 5725 Kenwood. She stated that she knew nothing unfavorable concerning FRIEDMAN'S character, associations, or loyalty to the United States.

Mrs. RICHARD MEYER, 5729 Kenwood, advised that MILTON FRIEDMAN and his family had resided on the 5700 block, Kenwood Avenue, for approximately four years. She explained that FRIEDMAN had first resided at 5725 Kenwood, and about two years ago moved to 5701 Kenwood, where he is presently residing. She stated that she has always found FRIEDMAN to be a very satisfactory neighbor, and pointed out that FRIEDMAN enjoys a very excellent reputation as an economist.

She stated that during her conversations with FRIEDMAN she has always found him to be a "conservative" individual, both in his economic thinking and his everyday living. It was Mrs. MEYER'S belief that FRIEDMAN is an individual whose beliefs do not coincide with the present Administration, and that he strongly holds to the belief in the competitive system without too much government control. She stated that FRIEDMAN is, as far as she knows, definitely anti-Communist and never gave the slightest indication that he believed in, or sympathized with any part of the Communist theories. In addition, she stated that FRIEDMAN was an excellent neighbor and that she would recommend him without qualification as to his being a person of good character, reputable associates, and loyal to the United States.

Mrs. B. O. MAYER, 5434 Ridgewood Court, advised that she had been living in the apartments at 5434 Ridgewood Court for the past ten years, and that she had never known MILTON FRIEDMAN or his wife, ROSE DIRECTOR FRIEDMAN. She stated that the only recommendation she could make as to individuals who might know FRIEDMAN or his wife would be Mrs. ROSE NITKA, 5426 Ridgewood, who had formerly managed the property at 5434 Ridgewood Court.

Mrs. ROSE NITKA, 5426 Ridgewood Court, advised that she had managed the apartment, which included 5426-36 Ridgewood Court, since about 1935. The Chicago Office has received a communication from Region I, 113th CIC Detachment, 1660 East Hyde Park Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, dated March 8, 1956, in which it was reported that during the course of a routine investigation on March 7, 1956, an agent of the CIC contacted Mr. MILTON FRIEDMAN, Ph.D., Professor of Economics at University of Chicago, who resides at 5731 South Kenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. On this occasion, according to this communication, Mr. FRIEDMAN stated that he and his "associates" had been "interviewed by the FBI concerning security type investigations, and that each has been given a copy of the FBI report of his interview. FRIEDMAN further stated that he had in his possession some of these copies of FBI reports and that these copies were given him by FBI personnel who interviewed him...."

It is noted that MILTON FRIEDMAN, 5731 South Kenwood Avenue, was the subject of a European Recovery Program investigation in October, 1950.

On March 23, 1956, SA [redacted] contacted Colonel ROBERT J. ARNOLD, Commanding Officer, 113th CIC Detachment, 5th Army Headquarters, to obtain additional details, if possible, regarding this information. Colonel ARNOLD stated that the CIC Agent who interviewed FRIEDMAN was no longer employed by CIC and his whereabouts is unknown to that Agency.

On March 28, 1956, MILTON FRIEDMAN was contacted at his residence at 5731 South Kenwood Avenue, Chicago, by SA JOHN D. RIORDAN and SA WILSON B. WADDY. Mr. FRIEDMAN declared emphatically that he does not have in his possession FBI reports, statements, or documents of any kind and that he has never made a statement indicating that he had such documents in his possession. Mr. FRIEDMAN advised that the information reaching the FBI might have grown out of statements he has made to the effect that in the event he is ever interviewed by the FBI he would seek to furnish a signed statement setting forth his comments pertaining to the subject matter on which he was interviewed, a copy of such statement to be retained by him.

Mr. FRIEDMAN declared himself in a sincere manner to be in sympathy with the FBI's program of security investigations as an essential requirement in the defeat of Communist and other subversive elements in government and other American institutions. He stated further that he considers accurate reporting of information received to be equally essential to avoid injustices to individuals.

Mr. FRIEDMAN was firm in his belief that a written and signed statement is the only way to assure absolutely accurate reporting of information and insisted on furnishing the statement set out below, witnessed by the interviewing agents, a copy of which was made available to FRIEDMAN at his specific request, the original of which is being retained in Chicago file 62-5164-1A:

"March 28, 1956

"Statement made to FBI agents Wilson Waddy and John Riordan:

"I am reported to have said that I had FBI papers in my possession. I have made no such statement and have no such papers in my possession.

"The source of the report is doubtless a remark I made to the effect that in any future interview with FBI people about particular individuals, I would seek to have a written record of my evidence signed by me, and preferably certified by the FBI agents, with a copy in my possession. The purpose thereof would be to assure accurate reporting of my statements. I have not done this in the past and have had no occasion to do so since I have reached the conclusion that it would be a desirable procedure for both the FBI and myself.
